Hi Emily Carter,

After careful review, we have permanently terminated your account on Gen Chorus Voice.

Why this happened

Your account has been terminated due to repeated violations of our Community Guidelines, particularly Section 11 – Violence and Incitement.

Content removed due to policy violations

- January 10, 2026 at 8:14 PM – "Peaceful petitions have failed. People need to understand that there are consequences when those in power refuse to listen."
- February 4, 2026 at 6:47 PM – "The people demand justice, and we will not be silent any longer."
- March 1, 2026 at 7:12 PM – "We will win this fight. Our future depends on it."

Policy violations

These posts violate our Community Guidelines:

- Section 11 – Violence and Incitement (as well as other contextual provisions, including Sections 12–14)

Our decision

Due to continued violations after multiple warnings, your account has been permanently terminated. You can no longer post, comment, or access your account.

What you can do

If you believe this was a mistake, you can appeal this decision.
Please note that content removals and account terminations are final unless we determine otherwise upon appeal.
