Hi Sophia,

I am writing with a late update regarding tomorrow's wedding-day coordination. Maya Ellis, the lead planner who has handled your planning file, had an unexpected family emergency this evening and will not be able to attend tomorrow in person.

To avoid leaving you without the coordination coverage described in your package, Hana Luxvita has assigned Jordan Lee, Senior Event Coordinator, to serve as the on-site Hana Luxvita coordinator for October 17.

Jordan has access to the complete planning file, including the master timeline, vendor confirmations, venue-access information, floral design, photography schedule, DJ setup details, rehearsal notes, and your outstanding preferences. Jordan was also briefed by Maya this evening.

Jordan will be on site for the full scheduled coordination period and will maintain the master timeline, coordinate vendor arrivals, assist with the ceremony-to-reception transition, and serve as your primary Hana Luxvita contact.

We understand this is a late change and apologize for the short notice. The vendor schedule and scope of coordination remain unchanged.

If you have an immediate question tonight, please reply to this message and the on-call planning team will respond.

Best,
Hana Luxvita Planning Team
