Hi Sophia,

We reviewed your October 20 complaint together with the planning file, vendor confirmations, coordinator notes, and the October 17 activity record.

Hana Luxvita agrees that the coordinator substitution occurred with short notice. We also acknowledge that you had to repeat some details to Jordan after he assumed the assignment. We regret the inconvenience.

Hana Luxvita does not agree that the floral substitution constitutes a failure to provide the contracted service. The final design was reviewed during the September 20 walkthrough and the substitution resulted from the florist's availability. The agreed floral scope was otherwise provided.

With respect to the DJ question during the reception, our coordinator record shows that the issue was resolved during the event and the reception program began at the scheduled time.

REFUND CALCULATION
Initial payment received: $3,000
Planning / coordination services performed: $1,800
Vendor research, booking & coordination performed: $600
Wedding-day coordination performed: $450
Administrative / planning records and finalization: $150

Value of services performed: $3,000

Because the initial $3,000 payment corresponds to services that were performed, Hana Luxvita does not agree that a $1,500 refund is warranted.

Nevertheless, without admitting a breach and in an effort to resolve the matter informally, Hana Luxvita is willing to offer a goodwill refund of $500 in full and final settlement of the service complaint, provided the offer is accepted in writing within seven days.

This offer is based on the late coordinator substitution and the inconvenience you experienced in repeating certain planning details. It does not represent an admission that the contracted services were materially deficient.

Please let us know whether you accept the proposed $500 refund.

Best,
Hana Luxvita Planning Team
