Hi Sophia,

We have reviewed your October 26 proposal to resolve the matter for a $1,250 refund. Hana Luxvita appreciates your willingness to compromise, but we cannot agree that amount is supported by the services actually provided.

Hana Luxvita acknowledges two service concerns: the late change in the assigned on-site coordinator and the need for you to repeat some planning details after the change. Those circumstances are the basis for our $500 goodwill offer.

We do not agree that the floral substitution establishes a service failure. The final floral scope was reviewed during the September 20 walkthrough, and the substitution resulted from the florist's availability. The ceremony arch, head-table treatment, centerpieces, installation, and coordination were provided.

Hana Luxvita also disputes that the DJ question during the reception demonstrates a failure to coordinate. The coordinator resolved the issue during the event and the reception program began at the scheduled time.

FINAL INFORMAL RESOLUTION OFFER

Hana Luxvita will increase its prior goodwill offer from $500 to $750 in recognition of the inconvenience caused by the last-minute coordinator substitution and the transition to the replacement coordinator.

Hana Luxvita's final proposed resolution is therefore:

Initial payment received:	$3,000
Goodwill refund offered:	$750
Net amount retained by Hana Luxvita:	$2,250

This offer is made solely to resolve the dispute informally and is not an admission that Hana Luxvita materially breached the agreement.

If the $750 refund is accepted in writing within seven days, Hana Luxvita will treat the service complaint and refund dispute as fully resolved. If it is not accepted, Hana Luxvita will proceed with the dispute-resolution process under the agreement.

Best,

Hana Luxvita Planning Team
